Title: ABDM Registration, Heal by India & Heal in India, Opportunities for Doctors Abroad

College Name: Shri Dhanwantry Ayurvedic College and Hospital, Chandigarh

Introduction: Dr. Priya Sharma, an esteemed alumna of Shri Dhanwantry Ayurvedic College and Hospital and currently working as an Accreditation and Healthcare Quality Improvement Specialist and Hospital Administrator at Shifa Al-Jazeera Medical Centre, Kuwait, delivered an insightful session during the PG Induction Program "SAMSKARA 2025." Her talk highlighted the growing role of digital health initiatives and global opportunities for healthcare professionals. She shared her professional journey and emphasized how Ayurvedic graduates can expand their careers by integrating clinical expertise with healthcare management and international healthcare standards.

Objective: To orient and motivate newly joined postgraduate scholars by introducing them to national digital health initiatives, global healthcare opportunities, and the importance of professional development beyond conventional clinical practice.

Session Highlights:

ABDM Awareness: Explained the significance of Ayushman Bharat Digital Mission (ABDM) and the process of digital health registration for healthcare professionals to become part of India's integrated digital health ecosystem.

Heal by India & Heal in India Initiatives: Discussed government initiatives aimed at promoting India as a global healthcare destination and enabling Indian healthcare professionals to contribute internationally.

Opportunities for Doctors Abroad: Shared valuable insights about career pathways for doctors working abroad, including healthcare administration, accreditation systems, and the importance of maintaining global healthcare quality standards.

Professional Growth and Skill Development: Encouraged students to broaden their perspectives by developing skills in healthcare management, digital health systems, and quality improvement practices alongside their clinical knowledge.

Outcome: The session served as a motivating and informative experience for the postgraduate scholars. It broadened their understanding of digital healthcare initiatives and global career prospects while reinforcing the importance of continuous professional growth. The interaction inspired students to explore diverse opportunities within and beyond clinical practice and strengthened the alumni-institution connection through meaningful engagement.
